FROM THE PASTOR

As the reality of our Family of Parishes continues to change, we need to continue to adapt and discern (with the Holy Spirit) to serve the needs of our two parishes with the resources that the Lord has provided for us.

To address the needs of our Family of Parishes, I (as your pastor) and with the support of the Senior Leadership Team and Family of Parishes Pastoral Council have decided to make some changes. These changes come from a time and process of deep and prayerful discernment, listening to the Holy Spirit's prompting.

As of January 1, the offices for both parishes will be consolidated to one location — at Holy Family Parish. This means that the office at Saint Patrick will be closed and staff moved to Holy Family. Exact details are to be determined and serving the needs of our parishioners at Saint Patrick remain of the utmost importance. Parishioners can continue to contact the office using the same phone number (519.227.4726) and email (stpatlucan@dol.ca).

Starting the first Sunday of January (January 3/4, 2026), the Sunday Mass (previously 9:00am and 11:00am) will be combined and celebrated at 10:00am. The Saturday (vigil) Mass remains unchanged at 5:00pm).

Fr. Matthew Sawyer (Associate Pastor), currently living in London, will join Fr. Steve Wlusek (Associate Pastor) at the Rectory at Saint Patrick.

We continue to look for new opportunities and ways to serve our community at Saint Patrick and pray for the Holy Spirit to continue to lead and guide us during this time of transition.

CHANGES AT-A-GLANCE:

- Parish offices consolidated at Holy Family Parish, London (phone number and email remain unchanged)
- Sunday Mass at Saint Patrick moves to 10:00am
- Fr. Matthew moves to Rectory at Saint Patrick

All changes effective January 1, 2026
